Why we have chosen this curriculum...	The WJEC GCE AS and A level in Law will enable learners to develop an understanding of both public and private law within the law of Wales and England, and develop skills which will prepare them for further undergraduate study and future careers. Learners will develop their ability to analyse both legal rules and principles and factual issues. It enables learners to construct persuasive legal arguments and to evaluate the strength of such arguments. It also enables learners to develop the ability to think critically about the role of law in society. It encourages learners to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - develop their knowledge and understanding of the Welsh legal system and areas of both private and public law within the law of Wales and England; - develop an understanding of legal method and reasoning as used by lawyers and the judiciary; - develop and apply the techniques of legal method and reasoning to analyse and offer answers to problems, based on legal principles, legislation and case law; - develop the ability to construct conclusions and communicate legal arguments by reference to appropriate legal authorities
